

Louisville Democrat.

SUNDAY.....MAY 24, 1857.
THE YOUNG MEN'S DEMOCRATIC CLUB
Meeting at Headquarters,
ON TUESDAY NIGHT, 26th.

The Democracy are requested to assemble en masse at their Hall, in Fifth street, on next Tuesday evening. It is highly important that every Ward has a full representation present. We have need of conference and association, and we hope every Democrat and Old-Line Whig will give his presence on this occasion. The President of the Association announced at the last meeting that the election for officers of the Young Men's Democratic Club, the appointment of Committees, &c., would be in order at the next meeting of the Club. Turn out! Turn out!

The Democrat is the only Sunday paper in Louisville, and is furnished to all parts of the city at a cost of ten cents per week! There are hundreds who would cheerfully pay that amount for the news in the Sunday issue alone. Let all such subscribe, and they will be furnished with the Democrat every day in the week (except Monday) at that cheap rate. Our carriers are prompt and efficient, and will be happy to receive the names of all who may wish to subscribe.

The Concert.—The audience last night was anything but as large as it should have been, as the music merited. Mad. La Grange has not been peculiarly successful here; second, because she has not been here before; second, because of the great attraction at the Theater, and third, and chiefly, because she did not charge enough. If the price of tickets had been two dollars instead of one, the audience would have been twice as large. If artists wish to catch the fashionable people of Louisville, they must charge two prices, not less than two or three dollars. If they want the mechanic and laboring classes, only fifty cents. We throw this up as a hint.

DEPARTURE OF THE MECHANIC FIRE COMPANY.—The Mechanic Fire Company, No. 1, of this city, will leave this city by the mail-boat Jacob Strader, accompanied as far as Madison by a large delegation from the Fire Department, upon their visit to Baltimore. They take their beautiful engine with them, and will be accompanied by the New Albany Band. While in Baltimore they will be the guests of the Deptford Fire Company.

David Lewis, known as Yankee Dave, who was committed in this city at the time as an accomplice of Bennett, who was hung in this city for murder, was before the Police Court yesterday upon the complaint of Margaret Cook, who charged him with assaulting her in her house, in Marshall street. The Court held them both to bail in $200 for their good behavior.

THE LICENSE QUESTION.—Such merchants as have been warranted for a failure to take out license, will have their cases decided in Police Court-to-morrow, (Monday). The Councils, to whom the question was referred, refuse to interfere, and the whole matter, therefore, revert to the City Court. Parties interested should appear before that tribunal-to-morrow.

THE PRESBYTERIAN HERALD, DAILY.—The Presbyterian Herald will be issued daily during the session of the Assembly at Lexington, at 50 cents the edition. It will contain a full report of the proceedings, and should be in the hands of every one interested in the doings of the Assembly. The number before us, the first, is very creditable to the publishers and reporters.

MR. CASSIDAY'S LECTURE.—We had the pleasure of listening to the lecture on corals by Mr. Cassiday, at the High School, on Chestnut street, last night. It was very interesting, the subject being set forth in a graphic manner by the lecturer and illustrated by excellent diagrams. We hope that Mr. C. may be induced to lecture again before our citizens.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—We direct the attention of our readers to the notice elsewhere, of the examinations of the public schools for the city of Louisville. They will be conducted during the month of June, commencing at the Portland school on the morning of June the 1st, at 8 o'clock.

THE ADAMS EXPRESS COMPANY.—This cosmopolitan institution, having out-done all competition, seems to have undertaken now to surpass itself. Mr. Jones furnished us yesterday Cincinnati and St. Louis papers earlier even than their own, and a man of many executives seem to be assuring their rights in our Police Court. The docket yesterday contained the names of several of the stronger-minded. Mary Trainer, Bridget Brown, and Anna McKinney were sent to the work-house upon charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

THEATRE.—Not quite so large a house as previously, but no end to the enjoyment—no end to the shows of laughter. For-to-morrow night, they offer the best bill, yet presented, including the Green Monster and the Elopement. This bill will of course draw a crowd.

THE BIBLE PANORAMA, at Mozart Hall, will be exhibited to-morrow night for the colored people. We are glad that an arrangement of this kind has been made. We doubt not but the Hall will be filled during the remaining nights.

FIRE AND FIRE ALARM.—The fire about four o'clock yesterday afternoon was one door above Twelfth, on Walnut. Two one-story frame buildings were burned, involving but little loss. The alarm about 8 o'clock last evening was false.

MASONIC.—The Grand Chapter of Knight Templars for the State of Kentucky, will meet in Georgetown on Wednesday next.

The Grand Lodge of this State meets at Indianapolis next week.

THE GREENBOURGH (N. C.) MESSENGER, a religious paper, is edited and published by Mrs. Francis M. Bumper, and printed wholly by females, even to the presswork, which is done by a big negro woman.

AN APPROPRIATE SMILE.—The merchant who does not advertise liberally in the newspapers has been very appropriately compared to a man who has a lantern, but is too stingy to buy a candle.

ANOTHER DEFAULCATION.—It was rumoured on the street last night, that the clerk of one of the Express Companies had suddenly disappeared, and with him some $3,000 of the funds of his employer.—St. Louis Leader, 22d.

STOVES AND GRATES are made to look clean and bright as new, by an application of the varnish sold by Raymond & Putten, at 74 Fourth street.

A party went in seining in Beargrass yesterday. They brought back an empty jug and three crawfish in a tin pan.

THE races over the Association Course, at Lexington, commence to-morrow.

Dr. P. Leavitt received four barges of Laurel Cliff coal on Friday last.

The New York and Erie Railroad.

Some of the inducements to the traveling and shipping public possessed by the road have just been suggested to us. In brief, they are summed up thus: The road involves a saving of twenty-two miles in advance; it possesses a broad gauge and wide cars; the cars run through New York without change, an advantage not enjoyed by any other route; the liability of missing connections on eastern-bound trains, incident to all other routes, is avoided on this line, it having no connections to make; liberal time is always given for meals at dining stations, whether the trains are on or off time, a comfort not usual on other lines; passengers avoid the daily annoyance of a large local passenger train, so common on all other lines, express trains being run expressly to accommodate the through travel, stopping only for wood and water; consequently a through passenger will in almost all cases have a wide seat to himself over the entire line. The above are but a few of the inducements offered to travelers by the New York and Erie Railroad Company; other advantages are well known to the people of the Hoosier State.

Rev. Dr. Page will preach in St. Paul's Church this morning at 11 o'clock, and in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Stuart Robinson will preach in the Second and Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock this morning, and at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Rev. C. W. Lane, Professor in Oglethorpe University, was ordained to the full work of the ministry at the late sessions of the Hopewell Theological Institute.

Rev. John E. Woods, late of the English Lutheran Church in New York, in St. Patrick's Church, conferred the Holy Order of the Priesthood on the Rev. Messrs. Thos. Treanor, Chas. Slevin, Peter Murphy, Richard Brennan, and Robert Byrne. Tousire, minor orders, and sub-deacon ship had been previously conferred on the Rev. George, 29th, and deaconship on the Rev. James, 2nd, on the last instance by the Archdeacon. These two gentlemen all belong to the diocese of New York.

Rev. A. V. Schenck has resigned the pastoral charge of the church in St. Joseph, Missouri.

Rev. F. A. Spencer tendered his resignation of the pastoral charge of the Congregational church in New Hartford, Connecticut, on a recent Sabbath, with a view to accept the call to settle over the Presbyterian church in Warsaw, Illinois. We understand that Mr. Spencer has consented to withdraw his resignation, and decline the call to the church in Warsaw, Illinois.

Rev. R. K. Nash has resigned the charge of St. James' church, Wooster, and accepted a call to Grace church, Berkshire, Ohio.

Rev. Francis Granger has resigned the charge of St. Andrew's church, Elyria, Ohio.

Rev. Mr. Foster, formerly of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Evansville, and now Rector of the Episcopal Church, Newport, Ky., has tendered his resignation of his charge, but the Vestry refused to accept it.

It may be a matter of interest to state that the first five Judicial Districts have the right to send their pauper lunatics to the Western Asylum, at Hopkinsville, and there is ample room in that institution for boarders from any part of the State.

OUR PLEASANT FRIEND, Mr. J. Dolinger, possesses one great advantage in his business—he is one of the best practical jewelers to be found anywhere. He has in his store some beautiful specimens of gold and silver ware of his own manufacture. His friends pride him particularly, however, upon his accomplishments as a plater and galvanizer, and he is highly commended by such as wish that description of work. He can be found at No. 113 Fourth street, between Market and Jefferson.

WE WOULD REMIND PROPERTY BUYERS, and particularly those in want of an elegant dwelling, to the sale of the Marshal-to-morrow at 4 o'clock, of Mr. Burton's elegant house on Jefferson street, below the corner of Tenth. This is desirable property, finished within the last fourteen months, and complete in every particular, the most desirable private residence offered this season. No cash will be required; terms 6 and 12 months. It will be sold on the premises.

MESSRS. VOGT & KINK, Third street, opposite Walker's, received letters-pastoral yesterday for their ingenious application to shirts and sleeve-buttons, heretofore described by us. This invention will now doubtless supersede all others, as their cost is trifling and their utility apparent. Messrs. V. & K. have some of the most desirable jewelry of their own manufacture that we have ever seen.

SAINT PAUL'S CHURCH is dedicated to the service conducted by Rev. E. H. Chaplin, of New York.

BISHOP F. D. HOWELL preached Saturday, the 21st, at the Chapel of the Epiphany Church at Indianapolis, and has presented it to the South Methodist Mission of this city. It is at the Union House, in Market street.

DEATHS IN THE MINISTRY.—Rev. David S. Tod, for many years pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church in this city, died in Natchez, Miss., May 4th. He was a native of this State, and a man of many execu-

THE CITY CLOCK IN THE TOWER OF THE WALL-STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.—As frequent inquiries are made respecting the performance of this clock, we will state for the satisfaction of all interested that no steeple-clock can run more accurately. Having entire charge of it, we have tested it fully by our time, taken from the best observatory in the Western country, and also by a three-cent marine chronometer, which does not vary fifteen seconds in a year.
